

Introducing
Tomorrow's Talent to the NHS today

Graduates Into Health

What is Graduates into Health (GiH)?

- The GiH programme links students and graduates from Universities to managers who are recruiting to non-clinical entry level roles.
- The scheme aims are to...
 - Support to NHS Healthcare providers including commissioner, primary, third sector and Digital Health SME's with entry level recruitment
 - To develop and deliver a responsive and customer focused sustainable recruitment service
 - Establish a long-term pipeline of top talent out of London universities

So far...

- GiH has recruited for over 30 NHS organisation alongside Digital Health London SME's such as MedShr, with adverts out for 11Healthcare and DrDoctor
- We have achieved a 93% retention rate of graduates staying in roles once recruited
- Have over 850 talented graduates on our pool who are keen to start their career in the NHS
